Domaine Graeme & Julie Bott Crozes-Hermitage Blanc 2022

"Beautiful quince, honeysuckle, green almond, and honeyed mint-like notes emerge from the 2022 Crozes-Hermitage Blanc, a nicely balanced, elegant, juicy white that has terrific purity as well as a great finish." - Jeb Dunnuck (March 2024)

92 POINTS

Domaine Graeme & Julie Bott Saint-Joseph Blanc 2022

"The 2022 Saint Joseph Blanc is terrific, with a fresher, crisp, vibrant style in its honeyed melon and white peach-driven fruits as well as minty herbs and subtle minerality. It's balanced, medium-bodied, has remarkable purity, and a great finish." - Jeb Dunnuck (March 2024)

91 POINTS

Domaine Graeme & Julie Bott Condrieu 2022

"A clean, classy, medium-bodied effort from this estate, the 2022 Condrieu has textbook tart apricot and orange blossom-like fruit as well as some spicy, mineral nuances. I love its balance, and it has good acidity and a great finish. It's going to shine on the dinner table." - Jeb Dunnuck (March 2024)

90 POINTS

Domaine Graeme & Julie Bott Saint-Joseph Rouge 2021

"The 2021 Saint Joseph shows the best of the vintage, with its juicy, complex, medium-bodied, and nicely textured profile. Ripe red and blue fruits, violets, baking spices, and hints of game all emerge on the nose, and it's balanced, has ripe tannins, and outstanding length. It's already hard to resist yet should evolve nicely for 7-8 years or so." - Jeb Dunnuck (March 2024)

92 POINTS

Domaine Graeme & Julie Bott Côte-Rôtie 2021

"Black raspberries, flowery incense, violets, and spicy nuances all emerge from the 2021 Côte Rôtie, a medium-bodied, supple, layered, seamless 2021 that has ripe tannins and a great finish. It's about as sexy and textured as they come in the vintage and is well worth seeking out. It's going to evolve nicely for 10-12 years or so." - Jeb Dunnuck (March 2024)
