Wine Spectator

July 2024

Bott GRAEME & JULIE

91 POINTS

Domaine Graeme & Julie Bott Crozes-Hermitage Rouge 2022

"A pure, focused version, displaying a graphite-laced stream of black cherry flecked with toasted anise and alpine herb notes. Grilled apple wood and crushed garrigue accents add depth to the medium-weight palate, with a slight creaminess to the texture through the clean, unadorned finish. Drink now through 2030. 1,660 cases made, 150 cases imported." - Kristen Bieler (July 2024)

93 POINTS | Insider Weekly | #92 Wine Spectator's *'Top 100 Wines of 2024'

Domaine Graeme & Julie Bott Saint Joseph Rouge 2022

"Complex and very well-crafted, with good weight and ripeness to the black fruit, hibiscus and cured sausage flavors. Elements of crushed aniseed, coffee and baking spices add nice richness, with charred mesquite smoke wafting through. The tannins are nicely sculpted and firm, with a bitter cherry note ringing out on the long finish, which is cut with precision. Drink now through 2035. 2,100 cases made, 300 cases imported." - Kristen Bieler (July 2024)

94 POINTS | Insider Weekly

Domaine Graeme & Julie Bott Côte-Rôtie Lieu-Dit Semons 2020

"Chewy, round and broad-shouldered, this offers a warm rush of smoked bacon fat, mocha-dusted black cherry and pomegranate flavors. A salty thread of mineral winds through the dense, creamy palate, while notes of leather and loam bring an earthy edge to the ripeness. Shows impressive energy, despite the fullness and weight, with great texture and complexity. This should go the distance in the cellar. Drink now through 2040. 75 cases made, 25 cases imported." - Kristen Bieler (July 2024)